

Layos Camp Toledo Junior

13 to 15 years old

General information

This program offers flexibility for campers and fosters global connections among Juniors. Its aim is to cultivate students' skills and leadership qualities. The program highlights sports, nature, artistic expression, and collaborative work. Each day includes two morning and two afternoon hours, featuring four sports activities alongside engaging educational sessions on topics like the environment, nutrition, first aid, DIY, photography, and survival. Free time, barbecues, day trips, and daily challenges complete the schedule, emphasizing values like determination, perseverance, and teamwork. Students also contribute to housekeeping, daily laundry, and dining room tasks.

These activities are supervised by free time counselors or sports experts trained in our accredited school, ensuring a 1:4 monitor-to-student ratio.
