

Layos Camp Tarifa

14 to 16 years old

General information

We establish our camp 4Km from the town of Tarifa on Los Lances beach, at Camping Rio Jara. Two fortnights throughout the month of July. We reserve an exclusive area that gives us privacy to develop a family atmosphere between teens and counselors.

Our accommodation will be in tents. A simple and austere way of life that will put us in close contact with nature. In front of our camp, we face the sea and the beach with an immense surface that allows the development of part of the sports program. In addition, many days we will enjoy musical evenings, dinners or unforgettable sunsets.

Layos Camp forms a family group, between 20 and 50 students. Campers from 14 to 17 years old. A team of veteran counselors will be in charge of this teenage camp.

During the fortnight all obligations are distributed in a cooperative, balanced and fun way. The camp is built between everyone. They find an empty space that will be completed with a kitchen, dining room, living area and the tents that they will learn to set up themselves.

Our objective; Sport and healthy life. Create a family atmosphere in which our campers grow as adults, responsible and committed to the development of all activities. We will add a fundamental component: respect and love for nature living in an exceptional setting.
